THE PRAYER OF THE FIRST THANKSGIVING - 1621

Puritans are remembered for the first instituted Thanksgiving Day.

We often take time to remember Squanto, the Pilgrims, the Wampanoag Indians, and a great feast of their first harvest after much hardship and nearly starving to death. Sometimes ill thoughts about the intentions of men come into play, but on the day of Thanksgiving it was a time of peace and gratefulness. Instituted as a federal holiday centuries later in 1870, we remember the food yearly, but lets take a moment to review their sentiment:

O My God,

Thou fairest, greatest, first of all objects, my heart admires, adores, loves thee, for my little vessel is as full as it can be, and I would pour out all that fullness before thee in ceaseless flow.

When I think upon and converse with thee, ten thousand delightful thoughts spring up, ten thousand sources of pleasure are unsealed, ten thousand refreshing joys spread over my heart, crowding into every moment of happiness.

I bless thee for the soul thou hast created, for adorning it, sanctifying it, though it is fixed in barren soil; for the body thou hast given me, for preserving its strength and vigour, for providing senses to enjoy delights, for the ease and freedom of my limbs, for hands, eyes, ears that do thy bidding; for thy royal bounty providing my daily support, for a full table and overflowing cup, for appetite, taste, sweetness, for social joys of relatives and friends, for ability to serve others, for a heart that feels sorrows and necessities, for a mind to care for my fellow-men, for opportunities of spreading happiness around, for loved ones in the joys of heaven, for my own expectation of seeing thee clearly.

I love thee above the powers of language to express, for what thou art to thy creatures.

Increase my love, O my God, through time and eternity

Take time this Thanksgiving to recollect on the things your are thankful for despite hard times and more fully join in with the tradition set out by the Puritans.

EMAIL AND WEBSITE UPDATE:

Please note that we have updated our email address to print@printingconnection.net. Please update this information in your email service.

Also take a look at our new website. It has recently been updated and also has an online catalog showing some of the products our regular customers have templated. For your convenience we have also made a mobile version of our site for easy browsing on your phone.

RETURN FROM A FOREIGN LAND

We welcomed one of our team members to his first full month back on the job. Austin took a 3 month leave of absence during the summer to work with Shevet Achim in Jerusalem, Israel. He assisted in transporting children with congenital heart defects to their needed check ups and surgeries as well as helped upkeep the premises.
